

Response from CoreCivic

28 April 2021

From: Steven Owen, CoreCivic

Business & Human Rights Resource Centre invited CoreCivic to respond to the inclusion of a lawsuit the company previously filed in an analysis of cases that bear the hallmarks of strategic lawsuits against public participation.

- “SLAPPed but not silenced: Defending human rights in the face of legal risks,” Business & Human Rights Resource Centre, June 2021

CoreCivic sent the following statement:

“As your email notes, this case is on appeal and therefore still active. We are confident that the dismissal will be reversed on appeal and we are pleased that the Candide Group’s attempt to bilk the system will not be indulged or rewarded.” Steven Owen
